Article 1:

Objects and Name

1. The purpose of organizing an international governing body for kungfu is to standardize and propagate worldwide the sport along with its traditional kungfu tenets and spirit.
2. The International Kungfu Federation, hereinafter known in its abbreviated form as "IKF," is an international not-for-profit and non-governmental organization. Founded in 2003, IKF is the sole governing authority of the national kungfu organizations in the world.
3. IKF promotes and develops kungfu worldwide as a unique team with unique rules and seeks to join the Olympic Games.
4. IKF observes the general and fundamental principles of the Olympic Charter and seeks to propagate the Olympic Movement through the sport of kungfu. In accordance with the Olympic Charter and IKF Rules, IKF maintains its independence and autonomy in the administration of the sport of kungfu in its member nations and continental federations. All member National Associations and international organizations shall be equal before IKF Rules, and shall be free from any form of prejudices on grounds of race, gender, politics, religion, or otherwise.
5. IKF shall observe the Olympic Movement Anti-Doping Code ("OMADC") as prescribed by the IOC and other anti-doping codes relevant in preserving the intrinsic value of the spirit of sport.
6. IKF shall promote the Kungfu sport including related styles, at all levels, as a means to contribute to the positive development of society.
7. IKF shall consult with and integrate, if necessary, the best practices and models of the IOC and other International Federations ("IFs") of the Olympic Movement, and other Organizations with regard to the administration of the sport of kungfu.
8. The Rules and Regulations of IKF, hereinafter known as the "IKF Rules," is the fundamental and universal document upon which the administration of the sport of kungfu is based.

Article 2:

Operations

1. To attain the objects of Article 1, IKF shall promote and/or sanction the following activities:

- A. World Kungfu Championships
- B. World University Kungfu Championships
- C. Various international competitions
- D. International Referee Seminar and Refresher Course
- E. International Coach Training Course
- F. Concerted effort to continuously incorporate kungfu into the Olympic Games
- G. Publication of necessary kungfu-related material
- H. Other operations necessary to attain the objects of Article 1

2. The Operations shall be conducted as follows:

- A. IKF World and Continental Championships shall be held under the auspices of IKF and organized by the host member organizations.
- B. The Continental Kungfu Championships shall be held with the approval and supervision of IKF, and shall be organized by the host member organization selected at the General Assembly of each continental federation.
- C. Other international championships, such as invitational or goodwill, may be held by any of the member nations, provided that these championships do not include the term "World" or the names of the continents of IKF.
- D. The results of the championships shall be reported to IKF within one (1) month of the conclusion of the championships, along with all related documents and media materials.
- E. All championships promoted or sanctioned by IKF shall observe the Competition Rules of the IKF, hereinafter known as the "IKF Competition Rules."
- F. The International Referee Seminar, the International Referee Refresher Course and the International Coach Training Course shall be conducted by IKF only. Apart from member National Federations of the IKF, no other organization shall be authorized to organize, execute, or issue certificates therein for the referee seminars, refresher courses and coach training courses. IKF World Championships, Continental Kungfu Championships and other international championships promoted and/or sanctioned by IKF shall be officiated only by the International Referees approved by the IKF.
- G. The President shall grant the qualification of "International Referee" to those who have successfully completed the International Referee Seminar and who have passed all the prerequisite tests and criteria deemed necessary by the IKF.
- H. The President shall grant the qualification of "International Coach" to those who have successfully completed the International Coach Training Course and who have passed all the prerequisite tests and criteria deemed necessary by IKF.

H. IKF and its Member shall reject all forms and means of discrimination against individuals, groups of people, organizations or countries of ethnic origin, gender, language, religion or politics.

I. IKF shall support a fair representation of women in Kungfu activities and in the management of the sport.

3. The rules for organizing the championships and regulations for the International Referee and International Coach shall be enacted by IKF Board.

Article 3:

Headquarters and Official Language

1. The headquarters of IKF shall be located in the country deemed necessary by the President.

2. The official language of IKF shall be English.

3. The English language is the official language for the minutes, correspondence and announcements of IKF. Members are responsible for translation of the aforesaid into the language of their country.

4. IKF Rules and IKF Competition Rules shall be published in the English language.

5. In case of disagreement over interpretation or translation of IKF Rules, IKF Competition Rules, or any other rules enacted to govern the daily operations of the sport of kungfu and the IKF, the language in which the document was originally written shall prevail as follows:

A. Original version of IKF Rules: English

B. Original version of IKF Competition Rules: English

6. English shall be the official language at the all IKF Meetings.

7. Any member National Association shall have the right to speak or write in its mother tongue, but the contents shall be translated into the official language, and any other languages deemed necessary.

Article 4:

Organization and Membership

1. IKF shall constitute the following organs:

A. General Assembly, which is the supreme and legislative body;

B. IKF Board, which is the executive body;

C. President, who shall lead the IKF;

D. Secretariat, which is the administrative body

2. IKF membership shall be available to any Kungfu sport organization which groups together the majority of the State National Federations (or organizations) throughout its nation and practices its sport and holds regular national competitions. If in any country there is more than one such Federation or Association IKF will have to accept the one officially recognized by the National Olympic Committee or Government Sport Authorities.

In the event that a country is not self-governing, but has a National Olympic Committee ("NOC") recognized by the IOC, it shall be eligible for application into the IKF.

3. The following shall be the levels of membership within the structure of the IKF:

(i) Full Membership:

- Full members shall have voting rights at the General Assembly and shall have the right to participate in all official events of the IKF.
- Full members shall be required to pay annual membership fees, as prescribed in Article 6 of the IKF Rules.

(ii) Demoted Membership:

- A member organization shall be demoted if it does not fulfill the requirements of Article 4.10 of the IKF Rules.
- Demoted members shall no longer be able to exercise voting rights in official meetings, such as at the General Assembly, but they still retain the right to compete in all official events of the IKF.
- Demoted members are still required to pay their membership fees
- Demoted members may restore their membership status in full when they fulfill Article 4.10 of the IKF Rules.

(iii) Provisional Membership:

- Provisional members refer to member organizations that have fulfilled all requirements as prescribed in Article 4.4 of the IKF Rules, and are awaiting final approval of the General Assembly and IKF Board for their membership applications.
- Provisional members have no voting rights in official meetings, such as at the General Assembly, but they shall have the right to participate in all official events of the IKF.
- Provisional members are required to pay annual membership fees
- Provisional members will become full members when they have fulfilled all requirements prescribed in Article 4.4 of the IKF Rules and their applications have been approved by the General Assembly and the IKF Board.

(iv) Associate Membership:

- Associate membership may also be given to National Associations from countries that are not self-governing.
- Associate members may attend official meetings, such as the General Assembly, as observers, but they shall have no voting rights. They shall have the right to participate in all official events of the IKF, upon the approval of the IKF.
- Associate members are required to pay annual membership fees. The international organizations are not required to pay annual membership fees.

v) Suspended Membership:

A member association shall be subject to suspension of its IKF membership if the Sanctions Committee, as prescribed in Article 21, concludes that the member organization had not fulfilled its financial and other outstanding obligations in Article 6 of the IKF Rules.

- Suspended members shall no longer be able to attend the meetings nor will they be able to participate in all events of the IKF.

- Suspended members are not required to pay annual membership fees.

4. The IKF shall approve only one association for each nation or each self-governing territory, on the condition that the pertinent IOC-accepted NOC or, in its absence, its highest national sports authority, has recognized the association.
5. In case more than one organization claims to represent a nation or self-governing territory, the dispute shall be resolved by the IKF with consideration of the opinions of the pertinent NOC.
6. All affiliated member National Associations shall constitute their respective statutes in strict conformity with the principles of the IKF Rules, so as not to contravene any provisions therein.
7. A member National Association shall neither be affiliated to any other international kungfu organization not recognized by the IKF, nor participate in any kungfu events organized by such an organization.
8. Any member National Association may withdraw its membership upon final approval of the IKF, provided that it has fulfilled its financial and other outstanding obligations to the IKF.
9. All member national associations are obliged to submit an annual report to the IKF on their kungfu activities in official forms developed by the IKF.
10. All member national associations are obliged to dispatch at least two competitors, ideally one male and one female, to the IKF World Championships.
11. The membership status of those who fail to take part in the IKF World Championships for two consecutive occasions without justifiable reasons, such as but not limited to, natural calamities, are set to be demoted at the General Assembly on the occasion of the second championships in which the member National Association has failed to participate.
